About VIVA EUROPA

- ★ VIVA EUROPA is a pan-European cultural initiative that consists in the simultaneous projection on big screens - in public spaces in participating cities across Europe - of a live opera performance from Palau de les Arts Reina Sofía in Valencia, Spain. This event is for the general public to enjoy free of charge.
- ★ VIVA EUROPA has been associated with the activities of the European Years, under the patronage of the European Commissioner responsible for each Year. A specific video message from the President of the European Commission, José Manuel Barroso, introduces the broadcast every year.
- ★ VIVA EUROPA is based on the altruistic collaboration of the artists and people involved in each year's production and their strong support for this European project. The video and audio satellite signals are transmitted gratuitously from Palau de les Arts Reina Sofía, Valencia's opera house, to every participating city.

VIVA EUROPA Previous Editions

- ★ VIVA EUROPA 2009 JUNE 24th. VIVA EUROPA was born in 2009 as a cultural initiative, integrated within the European Year of Creativity and Innovation under the patronage of Mr Ján Figel', European Commissioner for Education, Training, Culture and Youth. It consisted of the live transmission of Wagner's opera Die Walküre from Palau de les Arts Reina Sofía in Valencia, Spain. The performance was interpreted by Plácido Domingo, among others, conducted by Zubin Mehta and staged by La Fura dels Baus. Over 15,000 citizens in 9 European cities from 5 countries simultaneously shared this cultural initiative.

- ★ VIVA EUROPA 2010 JUNE 18th, was held during the European Year against Poverty and Social Exclusion and received the high patronage of the Commissioner for Employment, Social Affairs and Inclusion, Mr László Andor. Bizet's opera Carmen was sung by Elina Garanča and Marcelo Alvarez and was conducted by Zubin Mehta at Palau de les Arts Reina Sofía, with its simultaneous broadcast in 43 cities from 17 countries across Europe. About 80,000 people were present at these venues.

VIVA EUROPA Objectives

- ★ TO PROMOTE the European feeling of community through a relevant cultural form rooted in European tradition - opera - shared in real time with citizens across Europe.
- ★ TO FACILITATE intercultural, intergenerational and intersocietal encounters every year, during a June evening.
- ★ TO MAKE PEOPLE FEEL AND THINK EUROPE by bringing together a significant number of citizens from different origins to enjoy and share vocal and instrumental music, theatre, visual art, technology and emotions.
- ★ TO TRANSMIT the European Year objectives.
- ★ TO SHOW the high quality and innovative force of art, culture and technology in Europe through this VIVA EUROPA transmission.
- ★ TO GIVE VISIBILITY to every European city taking part in this initiative, through video and audio references transmitted during the performance intervals to all the participating cities.

VIVA EUROPA 2011

- ★ VIVA EUROPA 2011 JUNE 13TH, integrated as an activity of the European Year of Volunteering, hosted the live broadcast of Giacomo Puccini's famous opera TOSCA from Palau de les Arts Reina Sofía in Valencia, under the patronage of Ms Viviane Reding, Vice-President of the European Commission responsible for Justice, Fundamental Rights and Citizenship. As in previous editions, this cultural event was free of charge for the audience. A total of 57 cities from 21 different European countries participated in this third edition of VIVA EUROPA, with 100,000 people attending the event.

www.europa.eu/volunteering

- ★ A cast of the highest artistic standards, led by Oksana Dyka, Jorge de León and Bryn Terfel, participated in this production, together with the magnificent Orquestra de la Comunitat Valenciana and the Cor de la Generalitat Valenciana, all conducted by maestro Zubin Mehta.

Local Communication by Cities

- ★ Each participating city advertised the event locally using promotional material (posters, leaflets,...) and/or through collaborations with local media (radio, TV, newspapers, magazines, Internet) to encourage citizens to attend this cultural event.
- ★ Most cities produced advertising material using information about the event, the performance and the venue or local area.
- ★ A style guide with the original artwork design was sent to each city as reference.
- ★ A programme including the performance synopsis and artistic information was also distributed among the audience in many cities.
- ★ Examples of different types of promotional material from participating cities are shown in the following pages.

The grid displays 12 different versions of local communication materials, likely posters or program covers, for the 'TOSCA' opera production. Each version is tailored to a specific city and includes the following elements:

- Top Left: A vertical column of small European Year of Volunteering logos.
- Title: 'TOSCA' followed by the name of the city (e.g., Valencia - Spain).
- Image: A photograph of a performance scene from the opera.
- Text: Descriptions of the production, including the director (Zdenek Metna), conductor (Giacomo Puccini), and cast members (Sofia Olmedo, Zeljko Lucic, etc.).
- Logos: Logos for the European Year of Volunteering, Viva Europa 2011, and various local sponsors.
- Bottom Left: A horizontal row of small European Year of Volunteering logos.

Acknowledgements & Project Coordination

Acknowledgements

- As coordinators and organisers of the project VIVA EUROPA 2011 JUNE 13TH we would like to thank Grupo Aguas de Valencia for sponsoring this European event, as well as Generalitat Valenciana for their generous contribution.
- We are also very grateful to the European Union undertaking and the integration of this project into the European Year of Volunteering, under the patronage of Ms Viviane Reding, Vice-President of the European Commission responsible for Justice, Fundamental Rights and Citizenship, and to President Barroso for his support and his message introducing the event.
- We particularly thank the 57 cities that believed in this project and joined us.
- We would also like to thank Ràdio Televisió Valenciana for their technical and generous support, making possible the broadcast to all the participating cities.
- Finally, a very especial thanks to the artists involved and the Palau de les Arts Reina Sofía for their altruistic collaboration, giving us the opportunity of broadcasting this great performance of TOSCA.
